Parrish Art Museum to view their artwork in the student art exhibit that runs through April. Later in the month, we will see the performance of The Great Race, at the WHBPAC, enjoy bowling at the Clubhouse and the teachers will host Parent/Teacher Conferences. In academics, all of the students are busy working on their Budding Author Stories for the Hampton Library event. The pre-k and kindergarten students are creating a cookbook, and the older students are writing tall tales. In science, the children are learning about habitats such as the rainforest and ocean. In math, the kindergarten students are writing addition and subtraction problems. Students in first grade began a new unit on related facts. Ms. Abby is teaching students about rhythm and movement. In Spanish, students are learning about different types of insects in the story, "Up in a Tree." In technology, Ms. Kiang started a robotics unit, Lego Spike. Students are building small machines and programming them on their devices to move with basic commands.
